

SUZANNE SALOMON, Co-Founder and Chief Operating Officer

Suzanne Salomon has been a business owner as well as an impact investor and advisor for many years to US and African enterprises in diverse industry sectors, including food, agriculture and real estate, Suzanne is an expert in business development, marketing and sales strategies, organizational management and development, and strategic planning. Her current investments and advisory work include:

- Advisory Board, EasyKale, a US natural food company with a patented powdered supplement/condiment that maintains the health benefits and disease fighting qualities of fresh kale
- Board of Directors, Knology, a New York-based practical social science and policy research organization that focuses on health, education, environment and other critically important current issues
- Board of Directors, Women in Technology Uganda (WITU), a technology accelerator and academy that empowers and trains disadvantaged women and girls in leadership, computer programming, business education, and entrepreneurial skills
- Owner/Manager, Church Street Apartments, a moderate-income rental apartment complex in Carmel, New York

Suzanne's previous experience includes Vice President at US Trust and Chase. She co-founded and managed Whitney, Salomon Associates, a wealth management firm. Suzanne founded and led International Corporate Strategies, a marketing, strategic planning and business analysis firm. Clients included Exxon, MetLife and Citibank.

Suzanne's professional memberships include: Social Venture Circle; Impact Capital Forum; American Sustainable Business Forum; Angel Capital Forum.

Suzanne earned a Masters' Degree in Public Affairs and Urban Planning from Princeton University's School of Public and International Affairs and a BA with honors from Wellesley College. She holds an Advanced Business Certificate from NYU's Graduate School of Business and Real Estate Institute. She currently lives in New York.

